

PAVIA MEETS... TÜBINGEN

I EDITION

March 20th 2024

2:30 to 5:00 PM - Aula Berlucchi, IRCCS Fondazione Mondino

WELCOME INTRODUCTION

Prof. Enza Maria Valente, Dr. Micol Avenali

University of Pavia, IRCCS Mondino Foundation

Historical and scientific presentation of the University of Tübingen and the Hertie Institute for Clinical Brain Research

Prof. Kathrin Brockmann

Brockmann Lab – Clinical Parkinson Research

GBA mutations and Parkinson disease: phenotypes, mechanisms and novel therapeutic perspectives

Dr. Julia Fitzgerald

Fitzgerald Lab – Mitochondrial Biology of Parkinson Disease

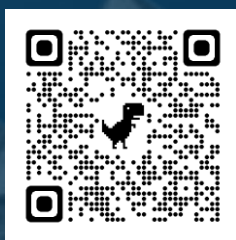

Mitochondrial dysfunction: a key pathway in neurodegeneration

LECTIO MAGISTRALIS

Prof. Thomas Gasser

Head, Department of Neurodegenerative Diseases

25 years of Parkinson Disease genetics: which piece of the puzzle is still missing?

REGISTRATION

Please register to the event by March 10th
through this QRcode

ATTEND ONLINE

Remote attendance available on Zoom
through this QR Code

«Pavia Meets...» is a series of events to celebrate the scientific collaboration between Pavia and outstanding research centers across Europe